ASSESSMENT

Practical? Versatile? Flexible?

You must be talking about the MET.

The MET is a multilevel 4-skills exam that measures proficiency on a scale ranging from upper beginner to lower advanced, with scores linked to levels A2–C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

- Precise, reliable measurement of English ability across skill levels
- Reflects authentic and everyday American English for academic or business purposes
- Unique, secure forms for each administration
- Backed by the University of Michigan and supported by the University of Cambridge
